

Romans 1:1-17 • How to Be Right with God

1. (v.1-7) God has a purpose for my life that involves both a personal call for the work of His kingdom and a general call to be holy — separated and distinct in heart and character—from the world, wholly devoted to His service, and His service only.

2. (v.8-17) Publicly and unapologetically proclaiming Christ and His Gospel is a visible indicator of those truly “called as saints” — set apart from this world as holy ones, dedicated vessels for His exclusive use.

3. (v.8-17) Biblical righteousness is equated with biblical faithfulness. It the application of faith going forward after coming to the cross.
