

Romans 6 • Dead to Sin

1. (v.1-10) The old nature can no longer reign over the Christian who knows the truth, acts upon it, and puts it into practice.
2. (v.11) Reckoning is that step of faith which believes God's Word and acts upon it.
3. (v.12-23) The proper application is to follow up by yielding ourselves to God's Word and ways.

Summary

Believers who daily commit to God's Word will know their position in Christ.

Believers who daily commit to God's Word will build the kind of faith that reckons themselves dead to sin and alive unto Christ.

Believers who daily commit to God's Word will be able to yield to the indwelling of the Holy Spirit and obtain victory.