

Romans 10:1-13 • When Man Loves the Rules More than the Ruler

1. (v.1) This is primarily an issue about _____.
2. (v.2) _____ for God cannot make up for the proper application of the biblical definition of “_____”.
3. (v.3-4) When the _____ are followed rather than the _____, _____ of the Law results.
4. (v.5-6a) The problem is subscribing to a doctrine that righteousness is based on the _____ when it is based on _____.
5. (v.6-8) The problem expands so that there is no effort to _____ God on His _____, instead insisting it comes on one’s own _____.
6. (v.8-10) It is not enough to believe in Christ’s _____, but to engage the Word of faith not just through _____ Christ as Lord, but faith in His _____ and _____.
7. (v.11-13) The biblical definition of “_____” on Christ’s name is not merely _____ His name, but to do so believing in the work of the _____.
8. (Mt. 7:21-23) Invoking Jesus’ name has no value if the heart and mind is not _____ for God so as to confess Him as Ruler and Risen Son. Failure to do so is biblically defined as “_____” because the Law only comes through a right _____ with Christ, not merely using His _____.
