

1 Corinthians 9 • The Privileges of Leadership

1. (v.1-6) The ministry of the Gospel is more important to true ministers than even their unchallenged _____ to the most basic, personal _____.
2. (v.7) The ministry of the Gospel warrants at least the same, basic _____ that is expected in any endeavor – not an additional _____ above and beyond but neither an automatic _____ of same.
3. (v.8-11) The ministry of the Gospel may require basic, physical _____, but its ministers do not expect to reap earthly _____ but look forward to greater, spiritual _____.
4. (v.12-14) True ministers are more concerned for the ministry of the _____ than even the basic _____ assigned for its proponents. Nothing is allowed – neither good nor evil – to _____ it in the slightest.
5. (v.15-18) True ministers do not look upon their responsibilities as _____ but instead view them as _____, seeking any way possible to both _____ and be _____.
6. (v.19a) True ministers want no master except _____ alone.
7. (v.19b-23) True ministers of the Gospel sacrifice their own _____ in order to win the _____.
8. (v.24-27) True ministers of the Gospel are living, visible _____ of the Gospel, not merely _____. Spiritually they are examples of discipline and self-control where God's _____ are concerned, a personal _____ of the working of the Gospel.

1 Corinthians 9 • The Privileges of Leadership

1. (v.1-6) The ministry of the Gospel is more important to true ministers than even their unchallenged _____ to the most basic, personal _____.
2. (v.7) The ministry of the Gospel warrants at least the same, basic _____ that is expected in any endeavor – not an additional _____ above and beyond but neither an automatic _____ of same.
3. (v.8-11) The ministry of the Gospel may require basic, physical _____, but its ministers do not expect to reap earthly _____ but look forward to greater, spiritual _____.
4. (v.12-14) True ministers are more concerned for the ministry of the _____ than even the basic _____ assigned for its proponents. Nothing is allowed – neither good nor evil – to _____ it in the slightest.
5. (v.15-18) True ministers do not look upon their responsibilities as _____ but instead view them as _____, seeking any way possible to both _____ and be _____.
6. (v.19a) True ministers want no master except _____ alone.
7. (v.19b-23) True ministers of the Gospel sacrifice their own _____ in order to win the _____.
8. (v.24-27) True ministers of the Gospel are living, visible _____ of the Gospel, not merely _____. Spiritually they are examples of discipline and self-control where God's _____ are concerned, a personal _____ of the working of the Gospel.