

2 Corinthians 1 • Inside the Heart of the Church

---

1. (v.1-7) One of the primary reasons we experience the dual aspects of suffering and comfort _____ is so that we might in turn comfort _____.
2. (v.8-11) The dual aspects of suffering and comfort result in increased _____ in Christ and a visible witness of His _____.
3. (v.12-14) Regardless of conditions, even through sufferings and trials, a _____ Christian is proven by _____ behavior.
4. (v.15-22) The dual aspects of sufferings and comfort actually enable us to claim the _____ of God both for this _____ and the _____.
5. (v.23-24) Christians consciously avoid being an additional source of _____, but a continual source of _____.

2 Corinthians 1 • Inside the Heart of the Church

---

1. (v.1-7) One of the primary reasons we experience the dual aspects of suffering and comfort _____ is so that we might in turn comfort _____.
2. (v.8-11) The dual aspects of suffering and comfort result in increased _____ in Christ and a visible witness of His _____.
3. (v.12-14) Regardless of conditions, even through sufferings and trials, a _____ Christian is proven by _____ behavior.
4. (v.15-22) The dual aspects of sufferings and comfort actually enable us to claim the _____ of God both for this _____ and the _____.
5. (v.23-24) Christians consciously avoid being an additional source of _____, but a continual source of _____.