

2 Cor. 3:17-18 & 4 • Irrefutable Proof of God's Existence

1. (3:17-18) Believers are a visible _____ of God's glory and power and _____ in Christ.
2. (4:1-2) Believers' "ministry" (literally "_____") is intended to _____ both Believer and non-believer alike.
3. (4:3-6) The more a Believer become the image of _____, the greater their understanding and knowledge of _____, and the better others see _____ through them.
4. (4:7-10) Believers are a visible witness of the power of the _____ transforming them into the image of Christ as they _____ the old and embrace the new.
5. (4:11-12) As Believers are "being made a _____" to the world, they shine as tangible proof of the existence of God.
6. (4:13-15) Believers are supposed to be visible proof of the work of the _____.
7. (4:16-18) When Believers _____ that Christ's death and resurrection works through them a ministry of reconciliation to God, they can live _____ because they see the spiritual results the world cannot.

2 Cor. 3:17-18 & 4 • Irrefutable Proof of God's Existence

1. (3:17-18) Believers are a visible _____ of God's glory and power and _____ in Christ.
2. (4:1-2) Believers' "ministry" (literally "_____") is intended to _____ both Believer and non-believer alike.
3. (4:3-6) The more a Believer become the image of _____, the greater their understanding and knowledge of _____, and the better others see _____ through them.
4. (4:7-10) Believers are a visible witness of the power of the _____ transforming them into the image of Christ as they _____ the old and embrace the new.
5. (4:11-12) As Believers are "being made a _____" to the world, they shine as tangible proof of the existence of God.
6. (4:13-15) Believers are supposed to be visible proof of the work of the _____.
7. (4:16-18) When Believers _____ that Christ's death and resurrection works through them a ministry of reconciliation to God, they can live _____ because they see the spiritual results the world cannot.