

2 Corinthians 12:1-10 • Achieving Contentment

1. (v.1) A true spiritual leader uses every experience to point to and teach about _____.
2. (v.2) Even in extraordinary circumstances a true spiritual leader is _____ and seeks not his own _____.
3. (v.3-4) Authentic spiritual events sometimes transcend the ability to fully _____ them.
4. (v.5-6) An authentic faith magnifies _____ regardless while diminishing any focus on _____.
5. (v.7) The point and focus is always the glory of _____, not the glory of _____.
6. (v.8-10) The biblical definition of “weakness” is really “_____”, a condition by which we have no inherent _____ of our own and obtain it totally and exclusively from _____.
7. (Ps. 88:1-7) _____
8. (Jn. 15:15-17) _____
9. (Heb. 11:32-40) _____

2 Corinthians 12:1-10 • Achieving Contentment

1. (v.1) A true spiritual leader uses every experience to point to and teach about _____.
2. (v.2) Even in extraordinary circumstances a true spiritual leader is _____ and seeks not his own _____.
3. (v.3-4) Authentic spiritual events sometimes transcend the ability to fully _____ them.
4. (v.5-6) An authentic faith magnifies _____ regardless while diminishing any focus on _____.
5. (v.7) The point and focus is always the glory of _____, not the glory of _____.
6. (v.8-10) The biblical definition of “weakness” is really “_____”, a condition by which we have no inherent _____ of our own and obtain it totally and exclusively from _____.
7. (Ps. 88:1-7) _____
8. (Jn. 15:15-17) _____
9. (Heb. 11:32-40) _____