

Philippians 2 • When Theology Intersects with Relationships

- (v.1-11) The attitude of Christ was that of a _____ unconcerned with personal _____ but personal _____:
 - “...encouragement in _____...”
 - “...consolation of _____...”
 - “...fellowship of the _____...”
 - “..._____ and _____...”
- (v.2) Christian _____ is not for the sake of _____ but the Gospel:
 - “...being of the same _____...”
 - “...maintaining the same _____...”
 - “...united in _____...”
 - “...intent on one _____...”
- (v.3-4) The greatest enemy of the Gospel and unity is _____.
- (v.5-11) The example of Christ as a bond-servant is to die to _____ and leave personal _____ to the Father.
- (v.12-18) Biblical joy is the setting aside of personal _____ to do whatever it takes to advance the Gospel in _____ and _____.

Philippians 2 • When Theology Intersects with Relationships

- (v.1-11) The attitude of Christ was that of a _____ unconcerned with personal _____ but personal _____:
 - “...encouragement in _____...”
 - “...consolation of _____...”
 - “...fellowship of the _____...”
 - “..._____ and _____...”
- (v.2) Christian _____ is not for the sake of _____ but the Gospel:
 - “...being of the same _____...”
 - “...maintaining the same _____...”
 - “...united in _____...”
 - “...intent on one _____...”
- (v.3-4) The greatest enemy of the Gospel and unity is _____.
- (v.5-11) The example of Christ as a bond-servant is to die to _____ and leave personal _____ to the Father.
- (v.12-18) Biblical joy is the setting aside of personal _____ to do whatever it takes to advance the Gospel in _____ and _____.