

2 Thessalonians 3 • Practical Christianity

1. (v.1-5) Where there is a true and loving personal relationship with Christ, there will be patience and hope, the kind of hope which lives to share His Word in spite of the earthly circumstances

2. (v.6-13) A Christian who truly believes in the imminent Return of Christ continues to live as a biblical example as much to fellow Believers as to the unsaved.

3. (v,14-18) Every member of the Body of Christ has the responsibility of holding each other personally accountable; it is not the sole purview of leadership.
