

1 Timothy 1 • The Goal of Christian Instruction

1. (v.1-2) Paul's encouragement of others is ALWAYS provided within the context of God's _____.
2. (v.3-4) The bad teaching of "strange doctrines", "myths", and "endless genealogies" divert from biblical _____ in favor of "mere _____".
3. (v.5) The goal of biblical instruction is _____:
 - a. "...from a pure _____" – a _____ unpolluted by sin by the application of God's Word to the _____.
 - b. "...a good _____" – a _____ that always chooses God's way by the application of God's Word to the _____.
 - c. "...a sincere _____" – exclusively _____ in Christ alone by the application of God's Word to the _____.
4. (v.6-7) When we avoid the issues of the _____ of our heart, conscience, and faith, we are essentially going _____ spiritually.
5. (v.8-11) One isn't checking spiritual _____ of right and wrong when one is living _____ from the heart, mind and soul.
6. (v.12-17) A changed heart, conscience, and faith through Christ becomes a visible, tangible _____ to others of _____.
7. (v.18-20) Biblical _____ does not allow others to be deceived from the _____ about their choices.

1 Timothy 1 • The Goal of Christian Instruction

1. (v.1-2) Paul's encouragement of others is ALWAYS provided within the context of God's _____.
2. (v.3-4) The bad teaching of "strange doctrines", "myths", and "endless genealogies" divert from biblical _____ in favor of "mere _____".
3. (v.5) The goal of biblical instruction is _____:
 - a. "...from a pure _____" – a _____ unpolluted by sin by the application of God's Word to the _____.
 - b. "...a good _____" – a _____ that always chooses God's way by the application of God's Word to the _____.
 - c. "...a sincere _____" – exclusively _____ in Christ alone by the application of God's Word to the _____.
4. (v.6-7) When we avoid the issues of the _____ of our heart, conscience, and faith, we are essentially going _____ spiritually.
5. (v.8-11) One isn't checking spiritual _____ of right and wrong when one is living _____ from the heart, mind and soul.
6. (v.12-17) A changed heart, conscience, and faith through Christ becomes a visible, tangible _____ to others of _____.
7. (v.18-20) Biblical _____ does not allow others to be deceived from the _____ about their choices.