

Revelation 4 • The Heavenly Throne

1. (v.1) Whereas in Scripture it is recorded that most often God revealed to earth-bound persons something necessary to put _____ circumstances into a _____ context, here God is revealing it all from His _____ viewpoint that we might know the earthly circumstances in advance.
2. (v.2-3) The starting point is a reminder of the _____ of God Himself, that what is at work is the equal application of _____, _____ and _____.
3. (v.4) Believer's service on _____ is a reflection of their service which is already in progress in _____. This is a picture of how God sees the ultimate _____ of all those redeemed in Christ as His _____ and _____.
4. (v.5a) The greater purpose behind the events provided in Revelation is to bring all things to God's _____.
5. (v.5b-6) The things which take place on _____ are a reflection of the reality of what is taking place in _____.
6. (v.7-8) The redeemed _____ serve as a reminder that God will fulfill all His promises where His _____ are concerned, the _____ before His throne is a reminder he will fulfill all His promises where _____ is concerned, and the revelation of the heavenly _____ upon which the earthly is patterned as a reminder that everything will be fulfilled where His _____ is concerned.
7. (v.9-11) _____ is in _____.

Revelation 4 • The Heavenly Throne

1. (v.1) Whereas in Scripture it is recorded that most often God revealed to earth-bound persons something necessary to put _____ circumstances into a _____ context, here God is revealing it all from His _____ viewpoint that we might know the earthly circumstances in advance.
2. (v.2-3) The starting point is a reminder of the _____ of God Himself, that what is at work is the equal application of _____, _____ and _____.
3. (v.4) Believer's service on _____ is a reflection of their service which is already in progress in _____. This is a picture of how God sees the ultimate _____ of all those redeemed in Christ as His _____ and _____.
4. (v.5a) The greater purpose behind the events provided in Revelation is to bring all things to God's _____.
5. (v.5b-6) The things which take place on _____ are a reflection of the reality of what is taking place in _____.
6. (v.7-8) The redeemed _____ serve as a reminder that God will fulfill all His promises where His _____ are concerned, the _____ before His throne is a reminder he will fulfill all His promises where _____ is concerned, and the revelation of the heavenly _____ upon which the earthly is patterned as a reminder that everything will be fulfilled where His _____ is concerned.
7. (v.9-11) _____ is in _____.